Miss Doris R. Paletta Is The Bride of Seaman

Three Young Women Attend Bride At Ceremony In St. Ann's Church

A young man whose home is at Almonesson, N. J., now stationed with the U. S. Navy at Norfolk, Va., and a young Washington street woman were wed in St. Ann's R. C. Church Saturday at the hour of two o'clock by the Rev. Peter Pinci. The bride is Miss Doris R. Paletta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paletta, 416 Washington street, and the bridegroom is Seaman Willis Gillespie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Gillespie, of Almonesson.

Mr. Paletta gave his daughter in marriage. The young woman was attired in satin and French lace.

The model featured long sleeves, bodice, and front and back panels of lace, the panel at the rear extending the length of her train. Her lace head-piece held a scalloped finger-tip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids, Miss Arville J. Smock, sister of the bridegroom, Newportville; and Mrs. Leon McAuley, Morrisville, wore gowns similar to that of the maid of honor in shrimp tone. They carried a cascade bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums.

The flower girl, Amy L. Smock, Newportville, sister of the bridegroom, wore a gown of yellow taffeta trimmed with lace and carried a basket of bronze chrysanthemums.

The bride selected a gown of white Chantilly lace over satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long pointed sleeves, and long train. She had a finger-tip veil with lace cap, and wore white pumps. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses.

The bestman was Mr. Daniel Smock, Newportville, Pa., brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Mr. Thomas Hoffman, Bristol, Pa., and Mr. Leon McAuley, Morrisville, Pa.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Russo, chose a mauve-toned lace over taffeta dress and black accessories.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Smock, chose for the happy occasion a lace, powder blue dress with navy blue accessories. Each wore a corsage of yellow roses.

A wedding dinner for relatives was served at Fowler's Restaurant, Princeton, at six o'clock, and a reception followed at the home of the bride.

The bride chose a navy blue suit with red accessories as she and her husband left for a 10 days motor tour of parts of Canada for a honeymoon.

The newlyweds will reside on Central Avenue, Bristol, Pa. The bride is a graduate of Hamilton high school and the bridegroom a graduate of Bristol high school. The bride is a graduate of Bristol high school, and is employed by Kaiser Metal Products Co.

Shadows On The Truth

inconsistent with closer cooperation among nations nor with the need for an enforceable peace . . . There is an important difference between communism as we view it and communism as some of the Asian peoples view it."

Think that over! It is precisely the arguments which, back before World War II, Russia and her Communists used as their pretext for seizing the free Baltic states of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, and thereafter conducting the most bloodthirsty extermination and "liquidation" of democratic-minded peoples in the history of the world.

It is the thesis by which Russia sought to justify the rape of Poland, the bondage of Finland, the crucifixion of the Balkan States, the extermination of Czechoslovakia, and all her other horrible list of atrocities—in most of which, at the time or immediately prior thereto, our own national government supinely acquiesced in terms almost identical with those being used today by Adlai Stevenson.

It is the thesis under which, after the Korean deadlock was reached, persistent overtures were made to Washington for the peace to be bought on the terms of the Admission of Red China to the United Nations and our own recognition of that blood-stained regime.

Phrase after phrase from the Stevenson speech is either word-for-word the same as the arguments advanced at that time on behalf of the Communist, or identical in thought. The truth is of course, that Harry Truman, Dean Acheson and General Marshall all showed strong symptoms of being eager to go along with "good old Joe" in this matter, were headed off only by a blaze of indignation throughout this nation.

The Stevenson speech on the subject of kind-hearted Communism in the Far East is as full of hypocrisy as it is of misread facts.

For instance, after indorsing a series of "do-good" money-spending programs for Asia, Governor Stevenson said:

"I want to assure our friends in Asia that America will never seek to dominate their political and economic development."

Now, this high-sounding remark contains the essentials of a foul-smelling lie, for this reason—that the excuse for which General Marshall withheld military aid from our war-time ally, nationalist China, was thereby destroying the government we had pledged to support and also caving in the economy it sought to maintain, was that the nationalists refused to concede to Marshall's demand that they upset their whole political set-up by taking into their government the disciples of an antagonistic political philosophy, the Communists.

Does Stevenson think that a transparent deception like his will fool anyone except a few unwary Americans? The Asians know quite well that China which trusted the men whose regime Stevenson's seeks to perpetuate was betrayed by Americans political leaders who unmistakably were attempting to dictate both political and economic developments in China.

Text: "The Lord is my Shepherd" (Psalm 23:1).

In the New Testament, Jesus Christ is presented as the Shepherd in a three-fold aspect. As He contemplated His atoning work on the Cross, He said: "I am the Good Shepherd; the Good Shepherd giveth His life for the sheep" (John 10:11). Reflecting on Christ's bodily resurrection from death and the grave, the author of the Epistle to the Hebrews wrote: "The God of peace . . . brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that Great Shepherd of the Sheep" (Hebrews 13:20). The Apostle Peter, writing prophetically, said: "The Chief Shepherd shall appear" (1 Peter 5:4).

"Here, then, is our Lord's ministry for the fallen sons of Adam, past, present, and prospective. How could any one reject Him?"

Prizes. There was a large decorated birthday cake bearing the inscription "Happy Birthday, Wayne". Refreshments were served. Wayne received gifts. Guests included: "Patty" DiLullo, Sally Farina, Virginia Ann Pizzullo, Caroline Bilger, "Eddie" Levy, Thomas D'Ambrosia, "Randy" Esposito, Russell Cutchineal, Claude Hearn, Isadore Morici, Harold Ritter, Peter Brescia, "Bobby" Foster, Angela Genova, "Becky" McSherry, Gloria Beerbower, Thomas Giampietro, "Nick" Barretta, Margaret Seneca, Barbara Walker, Wilmer Johnson, Margaret Hanson and William Stansill.

A surprise miscellaneous shower was given September 3rd in Hibernian Hall in honor of Miss Sara Jane Keating, Corson street. The shower was given by Miss Keating's attendants-to-be, Miss Norma Stephens.

To Open Post Office In Baker House Tomorrow

Levittown Office To Be A Branch of Bristol P. O., It is Announced

LEVITTOWN, Sept. 15 — The Levittown branch of the Bristol Post Office will open tomorrow at 8:30 a. m. The branch will occupy temporary quarters in the former Baker House on Route 13 near the Oxford Valley-Tullytown road, according to Lawrence Mulligan, acting postmaster of Bristol.

The Levittown office will sell stamps, stamped envelopes, and will handle parcel post and special services between the hours of 8:30 a. m. and 5:30 p. m. daily. Money orders will be sold from nine until five daily, he said.

Mail going through the post office will continue to be cancelled at the Bristol Post Office, explained Mulligan, and deliveries will also be made from the Bristol Post Office. Reason for the Levittown Branch, he said, was to provide a place in the new community where residents could obtain "the financial services" generally obtainable at a post office.

The house, which will be the new post office, has been used as a supply house by Levitt and Sons, Inc.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Frye, of Pittsburgh, announce the marriage of their daughter, Rose Marie, to Mr. Thomas J. Douglass, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Douglass, of Reading, in the University Baptist church, State College, on Saturday, at 2:30. A reception was held at "The Allencrest," State College.

Mr. Douglass is a graduate of Lebanon high school, class of 1948, and State College, class of 1952. He is now employed as a chemist for Atlas Powder Co., at Tamaqua. The former Miss Frye is a student at Penn State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Douglass formerly resided here.
